WEB PAGE NEWS

Mark Fleak has been working on our web-page (thanks Mark!), and has passed along the following email:

“I’m Joseph Rentie, currently fighting in Iraq. I was sitting here online trying to find The Greatest Commands online and I stumbled across this site with your music. I have not ever found a site like this and when I scroll down and see the churches I know, like the Edmond and Tulsa, it brings a warm feeling to my heart, a feeling of home. I was raised in the 29th & Yale, Broken Arrow, and Whispering Hills Churches of Christ. At times I catch myself sitting around, and a tune will pull into my head, that I keep humming for quite some time , and I always think how I miss hearing the beautiful music of a congregation singing. I don’t always consider myself to be a religious person, but my mom reminds me all the time to pray and never stop praying. Before I roll outside the wire, I do, and when I think of my wife and my children, I find myself talking to Him like a friend, thanking Him for such a faithful woman. But like I was saying...I felt at home to be able to hear this music you all have put on your website and I thank you from the bottom of my heart. Even for a war torn soldier who feels so far away, I thank you all for the gift you may not realize you’re giving. Sincerely and God bless and keep you all, Joe.”
