You are invited to study and worship with us each week. We hope you enjoy being with us today.

Reasons for Going to Church

by President Theodore Roosevelt

1. In this actual world, a churchless community, a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid downgrade....
2. Church work and church attendance mean the cultivation of the habit of feeling some responsibility for others and the sense of braced moral strength which prevents a relaxation of one's own moral fiber.
3. There are enough holidays for most of us which can be quite properly devoted to pure holiday making... Sundays differ from other holidays—among the fact that there are fifty two of them every year...on Sunday, go to church.
4. Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the Creator and dedicate one's self to living in a grove of trees or in one's own house, just as well as a church. But I also know as a matter of cold fact, the average man does not thus worship or thus dedicate himself. If he stays away from church, he does not spend his time in good works or in lofty meditation....
5. He may not hear a good sermon at church. But unless he is very unfortunate, he will hear a sermon by a good man who, with his wife, is engaged all the week long in a series of wearing and humdrum and important tasks for making hard lives a little easier.
6. He will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if he is not familiar with the Bible, he has suffered a loss...
7. He will probably take part in singing some good hymns.
8. He will meet and nod to, or speak to, good quiet neighbors... he will come away feeling a little more charitably toward all the world, even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance.
9. I advocate a man's joining in church works for the sake of showing his faith by his works.
10. The man who does not in some way, active or not, connect himself with some active, working church, misses many opportunities for helping his neighbors, and therefore, incidentally for helping himself.
