SNACK FOOD
has been moved to January 18th

BABY GIFT

Nerissa Hall is putting together a baby basket for Amanda who has been attending our congregation for some time now. She and her husband, Jarrold, are expecting their first child in February and are both attending graduate school at Ohio University. We will be filling the basket with donations of diapers of any size and baby wipes. Gift cards to Walmart or Toy's 'R' Us would also be appreciated. A basket and card to sign will be placed in the kitchen area. Please give any gift cards purchased to Nerissa or Robin for safe keeping. We will be presenting Amanda & Jarrod with the basket on January 18th during our snack/food fellowship time. Thanks.

LOOKING AHEAD

Clothes may be brought in for our Spring giveaway. Any questions, see Rosemary.

Good Morning Family and Friends of Little Hocking

Welcome to all that have come to worship with us today. To our visitors, I hope you feel welcomed and desire to return at any and all opportunities you have. I hope you find our worship here at Little Hocking in accordance to Gods Word and if you have any questions please feel free to ask. I would much rather be corrected where I am wrong than to think I was right and be in the wrong.

It is good to be home from Texas, I have heard alot of encouraging words from many of you and thank you. WELCOME back Dave and Jean , It seems to me like they have been gone for over two months. They were away on a hunting trip when I left, and they were away visiting when I got back. I really am glad Dave and Jean are working with us, and look forward to a really great 2009.

2008 is behind us now, I hope that all of you enjoyed New Years Eve and have a Happy New Year in 2009. As Charlie mentioned last week, we have seen new births, both physically and spiritually . Family and friends passed away, and family and friends have moved on to other places. Sad to seem them go, happy that others have come our way. I see a growing Church here at Little Hocking with brothers and sisters stepping up to the plate, and I see many many great works being done for OUR LORD in 2009.

At the time of this writing, Sandy remains in Camden Clark, in ACU. Sandy has struggled for a long time now with this respiratory problem. She was encourage with the results this time as the doctors were giving her some answers to her health problems. Wed evening she had another bad spell. They are now running more test. Please keep Sandy and Denver in our prayers. Please check on those that are sick and not here. For if we don't , WHO will?????

Charlie will be traveling to Abu Dhabi, UAE Jan. 8th-16th on business. He will be missed and we will be keeping him in our prayers. CONGRATULATIONS to Charlie and Robin on his retirement. This is good because it will relieve the stress from Dupont and give him more time to serve the GOD above. (Little Hocking will be more blessed)

I was impressed with the number of forms that were submitted with names of men for deacons. Thank You. We had 12 names submitted and each of these men were contacted. Today we will be putting before the congregation, names of the men that are willing to be deacons at this time for Little Hocking. I ask that you consider these men-- to be full of spirit and qualified to fill the position as deacon. (remember that none of us are perfect in our self) If you feel they are not or you have a concern, please direct that concern to that person. If that does not prevail in satisfaction then bring your concerns to the elders. Thanks for your participation in this matter. (Acts 6:3, 1 Tim 3:8-13)

Col. 3: 15-17

In Him,
Gary
