Greetings

I would like to welcome each and everyone here today. To our visitors I especially welcome you and hope you are made to feel like family. Today Dave is away and I will be speaking this morning, Bob will be teaching the adult class and Jeremy will be speaking tonight. I am very pleased with the talent of our family here and their willingness to use their talents to serve God. I heard good comments on the lessons Charlie, Bob, and Brian brought to us last week. Matt. 25:15

Dave, Jean and Robin are in Guyana, and lord willing will be back with us this week. Wednesday evening many were sick or dealing with the weather (trees down, electric out, etc.) and were unable to be here. Please look around and see who is still out, give them a phone call or visit. Matt. 25: 35-40

Yesterday was Valentines Day and everyone showed their LOVE in different ways. Some with cards, flowers, gifts of some kind. However you shared your day, I hope that you had a good day. We all need someone to lean on; stress from the cares of the world alone is not an easy thing to bear. Often times we bring a lot of stress upon our selves just by hearing and believing rumors that are being told. But what do we do when the rumors become true and reality sets? Remember we are a family, we are here and you are not alone. Remember the words Jesus told his disciples, let not your heart are troubled, you believe in God, believe also in me. John 14: 1-6

In closing I would like to thank each one of you for your Love and support of each other. Each family here has their own cares and concerns, and I ask you keep praying for the family here at Little Hocking. Luke 10:2, John 17:9

Stay Strong and Keep the Faith.

2 Tim. 4: 6-8, Titus 3:8

Gary
