Greetings from the Elders

Welcome each and every one of you. If you are visiting today, we ask that you let us get to know you. It seems as no matter how hard I try to greet and meet our visitors, some how I miss someone. I want you to feel welcome here and your needs to be met. If anyone has a question as to why we do or don't do something in worship, please don't hesitate to ask. If anyone has a need, let the elders or deacons here know.

When I was young I wanted to be older, now I am older I wish I was younger. I always heard that the older you get, the time will fly by. That seems to be true, but in reality time has not changed, I still have 60 minutes in every hour. What really matters is what I do with the time my God have given me. Are we serving our God as we should?

Rita was babysitting Drew, this past weekend. Drew is 5 months old and so innocent. As I held Drew in my arms, I was reminded of my own grandchildren that are only 2 and 3 years old. How in that short 3 years, what they have accomplished. They no longer need to be carried, they can tell me what is bothering them or what they want. They can think for themselves. Even though they can think for themselves, they still need to be guided.

(1 Tim 4:12)

We all have enjoyed the warm days of spring, and are looking forward to see them here. Just as God has designed the seasons that we enjoy, and the development process of our bodies as we have grown from that baby we once were to the person we are now. God's design for his Church is to grow from a babe in Christ to a mature adult in Christ. Let God's Word be our guide. (Job 38:4-13) (Heb. 5: 12-14)

I would like to encourage everyone to stay for Bible class following worship service, encourage you back for worship tonight and Wed evening Bible class. I would encourage you to look around, be an encouragement to those not here. Remember God does not expect us to do anything we can not do, but he does expect us to do all we can do.

(1 Thess. 5:14)

Time stands still for no one. How are you using your time?

In Him,
Matt. 28: 19,20
Gary
