Good Morning and Welcome

As the early disciples did in Acts 20:7, we too have come together to break bread and hear God's word spoken. It has been said that if we were perfect, we would have no need to be here. This statement is true, however none of us have accomplished this task, and we NEVER will without the mercy and grace of GOD. Bottom line is we need God and we are glad you are here.

From Adam & Eve to present, many men of the Bible have made mistakes. Cain killed Able his brother because of jealousy. (Gen. 4:8) Moses took credit for the works of God. (Neh. 9:15) David committed adultery / murder because of lust and pride. (2 Sam. 11) Uzzah reached out and touched the ark of God because he thought he was keeping it safe from falling. (2 Sam. 6: 6-7) Judas betrayed Jesus for money; I think he thought he could have his cake and eat it to. (Matt. 26:48) Peter denied Jesus because of fear. (Matt. 26:75) The list could go on and on. Bottom line is that each one of these men had their reasons and had to live with the consequences.

Same holds true today. None of us can say we have never done anything wrong, or can we say we won't in the future. For we have all sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom. 3:23) Whatever the sin or the consequence might be, if we are willing to repent and obey God will forgive us for our sins. (1 John 1:9) I am happy for everyone that has come forward and ask for prayers of the church. Acknowledging wrong in their life and wanting God to forgive them. I ask each one of you to be a support where you can, and yes be your brother and sisters keeper.

Congratulations to David, Susan, and Brittany Lee for the birth of Isaiah. I am happy for them.

Lord willing, the carpet will be installed this week. We will be taking pews out tonight following service. All are invited to stay and help. We will have a very busy week.

John 3:10-22
