WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

The call goes forth to be different than the world and be aware that we are in constant danger of designing a religion according to what pleases self or others. Those who fear God are conscious of the possibility to stray from the truth and become blinded to the difference between mind-set and true faith. Does the New Testament back up what we believe? Do we know the difference between emotions and faith? (Romans 10:17).

Difference between Faith and Feeling.

Don't be deceived that emotion guided by feelings is true faith.

Faith comes by obeying God's word. Emotions rise and fall causing us to become callous toward knowledge of the gospel of Christ.

Difference between Love and Lust.

Love is selfless, and caring for everything that is right and good (1 Cor. 13:3-8). Lust is selfish and caresses fleshly desires (Titus 2:11-14).

Difference between Convictions and Compromise.

Convicted of necessity to please God and put Jesus and His Bride first (Matt 6:33). Compromise is the way to please people, which will deny God before disagreeing with others.

Difference between Concern and Conceit.

Concern reaches out with compassion to help others to understand the right way (Heb. 10:24). Conceit will not think of helping others to be saved (Mark 12:31).

How are we doing today in our thinking? Lets not get caught up in the thinking of men and the ways of the world. From time to time we need to do an evaluation of ourselves.

God is Love ,so lets share it.

Gary
