Greetings from the Elders,

A pleasant good morning to all! We're glad that you are here. If you are visiting this morning we want you to know that we are very glad that you are here and encourage you to join with us as we worship God in spirit and truth. Please come back any and all times that you can.

It is good to be home! This weekend Robin and I have enjoyed the snow that we missed while we were gone. On two different occasions we have had our vehicles "hung up" in our front field. You would think that after driving on the same driveway for 25 years; you would know where the tracks are. I hope you have enjoyed the winter weather also. In Guyana, it is simply HOT and HOTTER! One evening during the campaign (gospel meeting), a little boy was wearing a winter jacket and a toboggan. At the same time, I was sitting in front of a fan to keep cool.

Please plan to attend this evening. Lord willing, Dave will give a report on our trip and the ongoing work in Guyana. I also plan to cover some of the trip during Wednesday evening Bible class. Prior to evening worship we will have song practice. Let's plan to begin singing at 5:40pm. Hope to see you there.

We have received completed surveys from many of you. For that we say "thank You". For those of you that haven't, we want your input as well. So, if you haven't turned one in, Gary will be looking for you. Take a minute, fill it in and then give it to Bob. We do value your opinion.

Thanks to all the men that filled in while we were away. Many congregations are not as fortunate as we are. Thanks to Gary, Bob, Brian, Mark and Jeff for taking care of the teaching and preaching. Hope I didn't miss anyone, but if I did, thank you also! Thanks again to the congregation for helping send us. It is a costly trip, and it takes several congregations to contribute the needed funding. I believe heaven will be a fuller place because of these efforts.

Remember, it takes us all to do the Lord's work.

*"Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong.
Let all that you do be done with love." 1Cor 16:13-14*

Have a good week
In Him

Charlie
