Greetings from the Elders,

A pleasant good morning to all! We're glad that you are here. If you are visiting this morning we want you to know that we are very glad that you are here and encourage you to join with us as we worship God in spirit and truth. Please come back any and all times that you can.

Change is occurring all around us. Most of the time we don't like it, but it still happens. I'm reminded of the "new road" that changed Jim and Joan Ford and Mike and Tammy Sanders homes. Today as I stand in my yard, looking northeast I see a bull dozer preparing a building site across the road. Looking west I see the hardwood forest that borders our farm engaged in an episode like the 'American Logger'. Hugh machines are quickly moving about, cutting everything in their path, dragging them to a chipper and then hauling them out in semi trucks. The finished product will be a tree free horse pasture and then perhaps sometime in the future another building site. Oh if things could just stay the same! We also are changing. All are getting older, (even though life as a "senior citizen" is pretty great) many are not able to "do what they used to do", some are fighting serious health issues. More than on an occasion you will hear, and maybe you have said "Oh I wish I was young again", or "I wish I could wear the size I used to", or "if only I could have hair like I used to", or ... I'm sure you get the idea. The truth is we live in an ever changing world.

One of my favorite songs is #7 in our song book. "Abide With Me". Verse 2 sums up my thoughts pretty well;

Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim; its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

The Bible tells us that life is full of changes and very brief at best. We shouldn't get too hung up on the things that are changing and miss out on what we have. James put it this way; "..... For what is your life? It is even a vapor that appears for a little time and then vanishes away" (James 4:14) Jesus encourages us to take advantage of the time we have. He said; "I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work". (John 9:4)

*"Watch, stand fast in the faith, be brave, be strong.
Let all that you do be done with love." 1Cor 16:13-14*

Have a good week
In Him

Charlie
