Greetings

Good morning and welcome to the worship service this morning. We hope you find your worship inspiring and in accordance with God's word. If you have a question as to why we do or do not do something, please ask. Our goal is for each and everyone to be right in the sight of God and if I was in error, I would want to know about it.

In John 8:31, we see Jesus saying we need to continue in His Word. (32) By doing so, we can know the truth, and the truth shall make us free. In 2 Tim. 2:15 Paul teaches, the need to study. To show ourselves approved unto God. The ASV reads Give diligence to present thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, handling aright the word of truth. It is important that we study and come to an understanding of what God wants of us.

Visitation is going well, we invite you to come and join us on each Monday evening through May. We meet here at the building at 7pm, and then disperse to different areas of visitation according to what one feels comfortable with. Not everyone has the same talent, but everyone has a talent. I hope you will come and share your talent with us. It is enjoyable and very educational.

Rom 12:7-8 If your gift is serving, devote yourself to serving others. If it is teaching, devote yourself to teaching others. (8) If it is encouraging, devote yourself to encouraging others. If it is sharing, share generously. If it is leading, lead enthusiastically. If it is helping, help cheerfully.

In my lifetime I have heard it said we never see one another unless it is at a wedding or funeral. Maybe you have heard that said or even maybe have said it. I have. Of course we always follow up, by saying something like, yeah, that's terrible; we need to get together more often. Those words are so true, but do they have any meaning when they are being said?

The same holds true in our Christian family. If you think about it, we can get all wrapped up in doing what's right. Caring for the sick and fulfilling the needs of those who have them. We forget to get to know our whole family. Don't get me wrong we NEED to care for those who have needs, but we could be sitting right beside a brother or sister that needs a friend, or a shoulder to lean on and not even know it. Do we really know one another? Sure we might know where they live, maybe not. We might know the names of their children, maybe not. Paul writes in Romans 12:15 Rejoice with them that rejoice; weep with them that weep. I would like to encourage everyone to take time out of your busy day, if you're not already doing so, and get to know one another.

We all need encouragement.

Roman 5:6-10

I hope everyone has a wonderful week.

Gary
