Greetings from the Elders,

A pleasant good morning to all! We're glad that you are here. If you are visiting this morning, we want you to know that we are very glad that you are here and encourage you to join with us as we worship God in spirit and truth. Please come back any and all times that you can.

We were happy to announce last Sunday evening that Bob Butler has expressed his desire to place his membership with us at Little Hocking. He comes to us from Harmar Hill. We welcome him and ask that everyone gets to know him and makes him feel welcome with his family here. Bob is Mary Wise's brother-in-law.

Luke 5:5-7: "And Simon answered and said, Master, we toiled all night, and took nothing: but at thy word I will let down the nets. And when they had done this, they enclosed a great multitude of fishes; and their nets were breaking; and they beckoned unto their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink."

We go through different kinds of situations in our lives. Happy occasions, sad occasions, sometimes we seem so busy. We just don't know how we will get it all done. In the story above, Simon fished all night and caught nothing. If we go fishing for fun that would not seem to be a big deal if we caught nothing. But if we were counting on eating our catch, we might feel differently.

God blessed Simon with fish, so many he needed help from his partners in the other boats. Sometimes we wonder how we are going to ever get caught up. Sometimes we wonder what is taking so long. What ever the case, sometimes we need to ask for help; sometimes we need to volunteer our help. Whatever it takes to get the job done, we need to take action.

Gal 6:7-10: "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth unto his own flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth unto the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap eternal life. And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not. So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of the faith."

Have a wonderful week, and remember, everyone needs encouragement. Be an encourager, not a discourager. Be a blessing to someone this week.

Gary
