Greetings from the Elders

A pleasant good morning to you. I hope that everyone has had a good week. I welcome you to worship service this morning. Hopefully everyone will return tonight at 6 p.m. and every other opportunity you have. If anyone has a need or might have a question as to why we do or don't do something, please let Bob, Charlie, or myself know.

Next week our VBS will begin. I hope everyone that has a work schedule that will allow it is planning on attending. There will be classes for all ages. I see the excitement building, as our teachers are hard at work preparing for their classes to begin. Building memories and teaching little ones about Jesus should be EXCITING! Thanks to all that are involved in making our VBS a success.

Our mind is amazing. We live in a world today of computers, iPods, cell phones, etc. How did we ever make it back when I and many others were kids? God created us so that we could survive. Our eyes are like a camera. The brain is our control center. We use it to make decisions in life. My mom was in the hospital this week. I thank you for all the prayers and phone calls. On Wednesday evening she was living in the past. For some, that could be a good thing. For her, it wasn't. She, at one time in her life, had it rough and that seemed to be the time she was in. She was angry; she was afraid; the look in her eyes made me want to cry. She asked a question I could not answer. "Why do people have to be so mean?"

As parents, we have the opportunity to give our kids a good life, good memories, and to direct them in the path of God's Word. As children, we have an opportunity to give our parents good memories, and to honor and respect them. We need to show our parents that we care about them and ourselves. The way we live is the proof to what we say. So when we get old, and we relive the past, good memories will come to our minds. We can not change the past, but we can change the future. Some may not need to; some others may need to. Remember, Jesus died so that we might live. Let's live so we might LIVE.

(1 John 4:7-12) "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins. Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us."

Hope everyone has a wonderful week. I will be on shift, filling in for a co-worker that had knee surgery.

Gary
